

Deputy Tarr Graduates with the Top Skills Award

Deputy Robert Tarr graduated from the Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy with the Top Skills Award and 2nd place in Academic Achievement. The ceremony took place on July 21, 2005 at the Academy. Out of 18 graduates, from 7 jurisdictions, Deputy Tarr's knowledge and willingness to learn put him at the top of his class.

The ceremony was hosted by Edward J. Evers, Director Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy, with special guest speaker Stanley S. Clark, Sheriff of Essex County. Sheriff Clark reminded all the graduates of the importance of team work in a law enforcement career. "Working as a team will keep your community and your fellow officers safe".

(Left) Edward Evers, (Right) Deputy Tarr

(Left) Lt Col Dave Flohr, (Center) Deputy Tarr,
(Right) Sheriff Charlie Ray Fox, Jr.

Deputy Tarr returns to the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office as the Property/Evidence Officer. "His top-notch skills and dedication are a welcome addition to our team", says Sheriff Charlie Ray Fox, Jr. "I look forward to working with Deputy Tarr for many years to come". "Congratulations and thanks for all the hard work".